

The Extended Care Unit was contained in the Medical Unit. People's Temple members who were trouble makers were housed in the Extended Care Unit. Trouble makers were sedated with thorazine. The sedative was injected into the individual initially and served in the meals. Drugged meals were served to trouble makers on green plates (u)

The following individuals were members of the medical staff: (u)

1. Dr. LAWRENCE EUGENE SCHACHT
2. DIANNE LOUSIE
3. JULIUS EVANS
4. SANDRA EVANS
5. PARK
6. RICHARD CLARK
7. LESLIE WILSON
8. RINNIE KICE
9. AME MOORE
10. SYLVIA GRUBS

Security Force (u)

JIM JONES stated the People's Temple had to maintain a Security Force to protect JIM JONES and the People's Temple against those who would destroy the movement. The United States government was attempting to destroy the People's Temple by infiltrating the movement with CIA and FBI Agents. The Security Force was formed when the People's Temple was in Ukiah, California. (u)

In Jonestown, Guyana, the head of the Security Force was JOE WILSON. Members of the Security Force received their orders from JIM JONES. Members of the Security Force were armed with rifles and shot guns. Selected members carried handguns. [REDACTED] she did not observe the Security Force target practice; however, she did hear gun fire in the jungle surrounding Jonestown. The Security Force was (u)

a full-time job and the only jobs performed by its members. The Security Force was used by JIM JONES to intimate People's Temple members. (u)

The Security Force performed the following duties: (u)

1. Patrolled and guarded the area surrounding Jonestown.
2. Acted as a Police Force within Jonestown to enforce the rules set by JIM JONES.
3. Acted as a personal bodyguard for JIM JONES.
4. Record the entrance and exit of People's Temple members from Jonestown. (Members required to sign in and out whenever they left Jonestown).
5. Oversee work performed by People's Temple members and make certain individuals work production was maintained at an exceptable level. Individuals who did not maintain levels of production were reported to JIM JONES. JIM JONES would announce punishment of the individual at People's Temple meetings in the Pavillion.
6. Accompanied JIM JONES when he had individuals endorse Social Security checks and personal checks they received from the United States.
7. Make certain People's Temple members did not sleep during meetings at the Pavillion.

Meeting in Pavillion (u)

JIM JONES would hold meetings in the Pavillion each day. All People's Temple members were required to attend the meetings. Meetings would last for several hours and on occasion all night. (u)